He was from the royal Umayyad family, and his mother, Fadak, was a first cousin of the Abbasid caliphs of the Fatimid dynasty, which he would later supplant. Family and background Adel al-Din Musa was born in Samarra in 926. His mother was Fadak, a sister of the Abbasid caliph al-Muktafi. His father was Abd al-Rahman, a brother of Caliph al-Muqtadir, and Musa was a first cousin of the Fatimid caliphs al-Aziz and al-Hakim. He had two brothers, Ahmad (who was a member of the Abbadid dynasty) and Harun (who was governor of Basra and Samawah). Musa was possibly a descendant of the Umayyad caliph al-Hakim through the Umayyad descent of his father, Abd al 2d92ce491b
