Q: What is expected UI behaviour when I drag an item in a TreeView? My question is about dragging items in a TreeView. Consider the following: Create a C# WinForms application. Double click the project in the Solution Explorer and the IDE will open a new form called 'TestForm' in the Designer mode. (If you do this by pressing Alt-F10 instead of just double-clicking the project then the result will be slightly different.) To the right of the 'TestForm' form there is a tree view that uses the TreeViewItemStyle.RootStyle setting. Drag an item from the tree view and notice that a TreeViewDragDrop.DoDragDrop method is called and the TreeViewItem that was used for the drag is selected. Click on the control again and notice that the item
