If the side is doing really well, people then start to jump on the bandwagon. People love seeing the different teams get beat down. It's just fun to see and for that reason, it is important that we keep on doing what we are doing. 23. What are your thoughts on this season? I honestly cannot think of any, because I do not feel like we have changed. You cannot say that you have changed something when you are in the same system as last season. I can't really think of a difference. Everything will change once we play a real game but before that, we are just trying to keep improving. 24. The comments and criticism about the Brazilian national team are growing every day. Is there anything you think they can do better? I think they are good, but I think they have to understand that they are already good. People still think that they are very young and they need a lot of time to grow. But they have to understand that they are already good enough. If you go back and look at 2014, I think everyone was saying that they are too inexperienced to qualify for the World Cup. We all said that in 2014, but when you look at the outcome, it was very clear that the Brazilian team was more experienced. We have played so many games and we have played so many matches in a short period of time and that is why you can see that the team is performing well. The Brazilian team is not going to change, and I think it is the best thing for them, because they have so much experience in playing in high-profile 4bc0debe42
